Organizations choose SkyPrep when they experience:

- High training costs and complex logistics with in-person training
- Time-consuming manual record-keeping for compliance requirements
- Difficulty providing standardized, consistent training company-wide
- High employee turnover (call centers, fast food, retail)
- Inability to easily track learner progress and see who has overdue training
- Training that led to knowledge gaps and poor employee performance
- Difficulty training employees and franchisees in various remote location
- Disjointed training and need to scale, formalize and streamline training

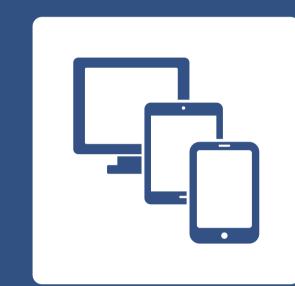

"SkyPrep meets all our needs... and goes BEYOND! The software is quite easy to learn/use and helps our team work more efficiently in delivering, tracking, and reporting on training."

- Jennifer A. | Director of Learning at Goodwill
